2010 Election Results / Florida Election Watch

The Florida Division of Elections' as launch a new election results website called Florida Election Watch. The website is a resource for citizens to track contests across the State of Florida. Select any race to view its details or select your county to view the contests in your county.

With open cabinet positions for Florida Governor, Florida Attorney General, Chief Financial Officer, and Commissioner of Agriculture as well as the races for Congress and United States Senate this website is an excellent resource to check statewide election results. You can personalize your Florida election coverage with MyElection Tracker. Just visit <http://enight.dos.state.fl.us/default.aspx>. Create a custom view of the contests that you want to follow. Click the Add to MyElection link next to any contest to add that contest to your MyElection page.

You can view local election information on School Board races and County Commission races on the Supervisor of Elections website located at the following link: www.voteindianriver.com
